

OMC ANNOUNCES

NEW 2025 BOARD MEMBERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 17th, 2025

On Tuesday, March 25th, 2025, Outpatient Medical Center welcomed two new board members to its Board of Directors: Deacon Fidel Andrade and Ms. Doris Greene.

Dcn. Fidel Andrade is an Ordained Deacon for the Catholic Church of the Diocese of Alexandria, and the Archdioceses for the Military Services (AMS), USA. He also served for 22 years as a US Army First Sergeant and has 36 years of combined federal service with military and civilian work experience. Dcn. Andrade represents the community of Leeville, Louisiana and is interested in serving on OMC's Board of Directors because he believes that his community could benefit from the services that OMC has to offer and wants to help raise awareness and assist OMC in furthering its mission to serve the underserved.

Doris Greene has 20 plus years of experience as a Certified Nurses Assistant working in home health in rural settings and nursing homes. She has served in the capacity of Alderman for the City of Tallulah during from 1999-2002 for District 5 and has numerous years of advocating for the Tallulah community. Ms. Greene has a desire to see her community thrive and receive the best services possible. It is her hope that in working with the OMC's Board of Directors, she will be able to represent her community and advocate for its needs.

CEO, Dr. Mark Guidry, said "OMC is grateful for its board members who volunteer their time serving the nonprofit organizations, which provides primary health care to low income, underserved, and anyone. OMC appreciates the community's support of its mission to serve those with greatest needs."

OMC's Board of Directors is comprised of 9-15 persons collectively representing the community at large and who accurately reflect the ethnic and socioeconomic distribution of the service areas population. The Board meets monthly to establish and monitor OMC's Strategic Health Plan, which is set every three years. The Board also reviews, modifies, and adopts new policies, reviews, and acts on any proposed changes to the level of healthcare services currently provided by OMC, and reviews, approves, and monitors operational budget and expenditures, etc. OMC is an option for you because caring for you is what we do!
